

Support from the Community Foundation of Northeast Alabama Offers Affordable Fine Arts Education to Children and Adults

Cheaha Creative Arts, Inc. was awarded $10,000 on Tuesday, November 18, 2014 at the Public Library of Anniston – Calhoun County (Ayers Room), a grant reception sponsored by the Community Foundation of Northeast Alabama for operational expenses for the Kilby house after-school fine arts program.

Funding for these after-school programs is made possible by a grant from the City of Anniston Competitive Grant Fund of the Community Foundation of Northeast Alabama. The Community Foundation's grant making to not-for-profits creates successful partnerships with community organizations, strengthening their mission's efforts to provide better services to the citizens of Anniston, enhancing their abilities for a better life.

Cheaha Creative Arts, Inc. acknowledges an appreciation to the City of Anniston, the Community Foundation of Northeast Alabama and the grant reviewers for the continued financial support rendered to the after-school program. Cheaha Creative Arts is blessed when it has committed community citizens, who believe and want to see positive changes in the community and understands the importance of educating children.

STANDARDS FOR EXCELLENCE “The Cheaha Creative Arts is proudly accredited by the Standards for Excellence Institute ® as having met all the requirements of the Standards for Excellence ®: An Ethics and Accountability Code for the Nonprofit Sector.”
