

CHEAHA creative arts

CELEBRATING & PROMOTING THE ARTS

CCA Annual Report FY 2012 - 2013

THE NATIONAL REGISTER KILBY HOUSE AFTER SCHOOL FINE ARTS PROGRAM

Circa 1914
Historic Gov. Thomas E. Kilby House
1201 Woodstock Avenue (Anniston)

P.O. Box 5097
Anniston, AL 36205
(256) 473-7707

rose.munford@gmail.com
cheahacreativearts.org

A Recognized 501 (c) (3) Not-for-Profit Organization

Providing Fine Arts Education At An Affordable Cost

Friday/Saturday $25/Month

Thurs/Saturday $20/Month

Wednesday No Cost

Tuesday $10/Month

Tuesday No Cost

Rose Munford
President/Executive Director
Cheaha Creative Arts, Inc.

Message from the President

FY 2012 - 2013 was a positive stepping stone year for CCA after-school fine arts program. CCA through partnering with the Anniston Yoga Center, created a second program site that offers at NO cost to the community, visual art and yoga classes. CCA started in June 2013 training eight (8) students as a string orchestra group for community performance.

Organizational Chart

ONE VISION

Angela Beichley
Interim Board President
Cheaha Creative Arts, Inc.

Message from the Board President

CCA accomplished a number of notable strategic achievements during the 2012-2013 fiscal year, that is expected to underpin CCA's future growth and success. Success Marker Achievements:

- CCA received Standards of Excellence training and submitting in September 2013, the application process packet.
- CCA partnered with the Anniston Yoga Center, that created a 2nd program site for visual art and yoga at NO cost to the community.
- CCA started in June 2013 training eight (8) students as a string orchestra group for community performance.
- CCA is planning its 1st major fundraiser campaign public arts performance called "An Evening of Fine Arts"

CCA Corporation

Rose Munford, President
Vacant, Vice-President
Vacant, Sec./Treasurer

Julie Brown, Marketing
Anne King, Volunteer

The mission of Cheaha Creative Arts, Inc. is to provide fine arts education to children and adults, changing the trajectory of their lives in a positive manner through exposure to the various arts.

The vision of Cheaha Creative Arts, Inc. is to be the premier center for affordable community-oriented arts education in the Calhoun County area.

CCA Board of Directors

Angela Beichley, Interim President
Michelle Donovits, Vice-President
Vacant, Secretary
Vacant, Treasurer

Members

Elizabeth Whatley
Vanessa Bonner

Unity Working Together Creates that Success!

Financial Supporters

City of Anniston, Solutia, Inc., Calhoun County Commission, Private Donors, Foothills Community Partnership, Rep. Barbara Boyd, District 32 (State of Alabama), Iota Mu Omega Chapter, AKA, Anniston Kiwanis Chapter, Anniston High School, PTO, Kiwanis Golden Club of Oxford, Anniston Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta, Wednesday Study Club, Choccolocco Heritage and Historical Organization, Recycled Antique Jewelry (RAJ), Howard Core Company